To morow shall we visite you againe.
Pri. Sweete health and faire desires consort your grace.
Na. Thy owne wish wish I thee in euery place. Exit.
Ber. Ladie I will commend you to my none hart.
Ros. Pray you, do my commendations, I would be glad to see it.
Ber. I would you heard it grone.
Ros. Is the foole sicke.
Ber. Sicke at the hart.
Ros. Alacke, let it blood.
Bar. Would that do it good?
Ros. My Phisicke saies I,
Ber. Will you prickt with your eye.
Ros. No poynt, with my knife.
Ber. Now God saue thy life.
Ros. And yours from long liuing.
Ber. I cannot stay thankes-giuing. Exit.

Enter Dumaine.

Dum. Sir, I pray you a word, What Ladie is that same?
Boyet. The heire of Alanson, Rosalin her name.
Dum. A gallant Lady Mounsir, fare you wel. Exit.
Longauill. I beseech you a word, What is she in the white?
Boyet. A woman sometimes, and you saw her in the light.
Lon. Perchance light in the light. I desire her name?
Bo She hath but one for her selfe, to desire that were a shame.
Lon. Pray you sir, Whose daughter?
Bo. Her mothers, I haue heard.
Lon. Gods blessing on your beard. (bridge.
Bo. Good sir be not offended, She is an heire of Falcon-
Lon. Nay my coller is ended, She is a most sweet Ladie.
Bo Not vnlike sir, that may be. Exit Longauil.

Enter Berowne.

Bero. Whats her name in the capp?
Boy. Katherin by good happ.
Ber, Is she wedded or no?
Boy. To her will sir, or so.
Ber. O you are welcome sir, adew.
Boy. Farewell to me sir, and welcome to you. Exit Bero.

Lady

Lady Maria. That last is Berowne, the m
Not a word with him but a iest.
Boy. And euery iest but a word.
Prin. It was well done of you to take hin
Boy. I was as willing to grapple as he w
Lady Ka. Two hot Sheepes marie.
Bo. And wherefore not Shipps?
No Sheepe (sweete Lambe) vnlesse we feede
La. You Sheepe and I pasture: shall tha
Bo. So you graunt pasture for me.
Lad. Not so gentle Beast.
My lippes are no Common, though seue
Bo. Belonging to whom?
La. To my fortunes and mee.
Prin. Good witts will be iangling, but g
This ciuill warre of wittes were much bette
On Nauar and his Bookmen, for heere tis a
Bo. If my obseruation (which very seldo
By the hartes still rethoricke, disclosed with
Deceaue me not now, Nauar is infected.
Prin. With what?
Bo. With that which we Louers intitle A
Prin. Your reason.
Bo. Why all his behauiours did make the
To the court of his eye, peeping thorough
His hart like an Agot with your print impr
Proud with his forme, in his eye pride expr
His tongue all impacient to speake and not
Did stumble with haste in his ey-sight to be
All sences to that sence did make their repa
To feele only looking on fairest of faire:
Mee thought all his senses were lokt in his e
As Iewels in Christall for some Prince to b
Who tendring their owne worth from w
Did poynt you to buy them along as you pa
His faces owne margent did coate such ama
That all eyes saw his eyes inchaunted with
Ile giue you Aquitaine, and all that is his,

WILLIAM SHAKESPEARE Love's Labour's Lost (STC 22294) LONDON, 1598 THE BRITISH LIBRARY (C.34.l.14)